

November, 2009.

Dear Middle School Parents,

Great news for readers! It is time for the annual Middle School Book Fair to be held on November 11th and 12th in the Middle School Library.

Audrey Ashworth, our librarian, has chosen – with expert advice from faculty members – hundreds of books for our children to consider. Students will attend the book fair with their English classes. As at last year's book fair, one copy of each book will be on display, and each student may fill out an order for his or her copies. The books will be delivered to students in their English classes late November.

Arrangements have been made through the Business Office to charge book fair purchases to each child's account. Please indicate on the attached permission slip how much your child may spend for books as well as the additional student data. Please have your child return the permission slip to their English teachers tomorrow.

Parents are more than welcome to shop at the book fair with their children or at any other time between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. during those two days. It will be possible for parents to order and pick up books as gifts.

All book fair profits will benefit the Middle School Library. Thank you for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Debbie Bernstein
