Look, I included the book title and author's name.

I read the book Tiger Rising by Kate DiCamillo. In the book, the main character, Rob, learns to deal with his feelings of grief. He learns that it isn't always a good idea to hide your feelings in a tightly closed suitcase in your mind. He learns that it is important to tell people, especially people who you care about, how you feel. In the end of the book, Rob finally tells his Dad how sad he is that his mother has died.

Look, I elaborated on what that character learned throughout the book.

Look, I mentioned the main character and what he learned.
